Did you know?

The Ames House Hotel, located in Wamego in the early 1870s, housed the first bathtub west of the Mississippi.

This famous bathtub was featured in a float in Wamego's Kansas Centennial Parade in 1961 and hasn't been seen since.

The largest Marsh Arch Bridge once spanned the Kansas River at Wamego. The bridge stood from 1929 to the late 1980s when it was replaced by the present bridge.

Wamego is located at the intersection of US Highway 24 and Kansas Highway 99, nine miles north of I-70 at exit 328
